Carolyn Frazer Bio

Carolyn Frazer serves as a dedicated Board Member of the Koinonia Community Development Inc., where she brings a passion for service, leadership, and community engagement. With a strong commitment to strengthening relationships between the church and the community, Carolyn plays an active role in developing initiatives that address both practical needs and spiritual growth.

Professionally, Carolyn is a law enforcement leader, which has equipped her with a unique perspective on community trust, accountability, and outreach. Her experience in public service fuels her desire to create safe, supportive, and empowering environments both within and beyond the church.

Carolyn is deeply committed to fostering unity, mentorship, and meaningful connections. She believes that true impact happens when people feel seen, supported, and valued. Through her work on the board, she strives to help build programs that not only serve the community but also inspire lasting change.

Guided by faith and a heart for people, Carolyn is dedicated to being a bridge between service and purpose while helping the church extend its mission in impactful and transformative ways.
